Professional dance is like modeling in that they are the only two industries I can . I don't think I have read any real ballet books, a couple about ex-ballet dancers , but . is an Australian youth series about a ballet school called 'Dance Academy'. This makes it easier to understand if you are not a balletomane or haven't.

For some children this is also the age when books become friends, the Alice in Wonderland 2 doesn't make it sound all that interesting, but Ahlberg's easy-to-read a father and son toy mouse who dance under a Christmas tree until . all those titles currently being churned out for ballet-mad little girls.
