When your pooch sits and licks at his buttocks, it means that the area is either itchy or painful to him. There are many possible causes for irritation of the anal. However, this type of licking often has a health-related cause. Instead of grimacing when your dog sits and licks his rear, take him to see the vet, just in case.

Dogs engage in a variety of behaviors that perplex us, and one of them is licking the air. We caught up with the experts to get to the bottom of this odd behavior.

So for example, my cat behaves much the same way " if I'm sitting in a chair in my living room, he won't come up. But if I'm lounging on the couch 2 feet away. Mom feeds Sir Licksalot his food in his bowl and then makes my breakfast. After Sir Licksalot eats his breakfast, he comes and sits under my chair waiting for me. I decided that my little poodle mix, Bernie, loves to lick my nose and face because of the moisturizer I use. We had a dog years ago that would sit and lick my.

A lot of cats lick their owner's hair, or even their beard and brows! You will notice that your cat usually grooms your hair when you are lying down or when you.
