

A shocking expose of the shameful betrayal and astounding cover up regarding American military men who were deliberately left behind following World War 11, the Korean War and the debacle in Vietnam. How American soldiers and marines were abandoned in Russian and Chinese slave labor camps. How highly skilled Cuban interrogators were brought in to sadistically maim and murder American POWs. How the attitude of our leaders followed the view espoused by Henry Bor Kissinger: Military men are dumb, stupid animals to be used as pawns for foreign policy. And Harriet Ison, Charge d Affairs -- United States Embassy in Vientiane, Laos, 1990: You do not understand ... there is a greater destiny for our foreign policy in Asia and the POWs are expendable in pursuit of that policy.
