

A Vita Christi de Ludolfo de Saxonia (ca. 1295-1377) foi impressa em Lisboa em 1495 por Valentino de Moravia e Nicolau de Saxonia em tres volumes, por ordem da rainha Dona Leonor. A traducao para o Portugues deveu-se muito provavelmente ao rei D. Duarte, que a supervisionou. A obra, como e dito no prologo, "contem todos os misterios da fe catolica, segundo a escritura dos quatro evangelistas e notarios cristiculos, com verdadeiras e devotissimas exposicoes de diversos doctores egregios, devotos e mui gloriosos". A edicao que agora se publica e a transcricao da edicao de 1495. A Vita Christi foi considerado o primeiro livro impresso em Lingua Portuguesa ate a descoberta do Sacramental (1488) e do Tratado de Confissom (1489).
