

“My mixed feelings about the Lord had me thanking him one minute and feeling like he had forsaken me the next...” Have you ever felt this way? Suffering constant abuse and paralyzing fear, how can a young lady experience true love? With siblings who were either absent or in her same condition and a mother who would not separate from her terrorizing husband, Rita La Point saw no solutions to the problem. As she neared her 18th birthday, the liberation date for all the children in the family, where would she go from there? Although she was finally out of the house, the damage was not out of her heart. Despite the unimaginable tragedies that became her norm, Rita can now say, “I know God is love and God is just; at the crossroads he shows me the path.” Read her incredible story to know just how the Lord can make something out of nothing, a way out of no way, a spiritual daughter out of a spiritual orphan. He did it for her and he can do it for you, too.
